

JINGLE SHELL Chill bubbly or arrange festive florals in Jayson Home's nautilus vessel ($295; jaysonhome.com). ➔

Sleigh the Wish List

Ideas that will inspire your loved ones to eat, drink, and be merry

BY HASKELL HARRIS

COCKTAIL NAPKINS

It's almost a shame to obscure marble-motif cotton napkins from Texan Courtney Barton with a cocktail ($64 for six; shop courtneybarton.com).

FLASK

The quail-adorned sterling-silver flask by Grainger McKoy slips as easily into a stocking as it does a back pocket ($1,200; graingermckoy.com).

PITCHER

Stir up Christmas morning Bloody Marys in a Blue Pheasant handblown glass pitcher with a fittingly yule-green tortoiseshell print ($174; shopbluepheasant.com).

COUPES

Consider these La DoubleJ coupes, shaped from hand-blown Murano glass, instant jewelry for the bar ($550 for two; us.ladoublej.com).

COCKTAIL PICKS

Skewer olives, lemons, limes, pickled okra, an annoying neighbor, you name it, with a sparkling antler cocktail pick from Joanna Buchanan ($128 for six; joannabuchanan.com).

BEER GLASS

Wouldn't a warming bourbon-barrel-aged milk stout taste even better in one of MATCH's Italian-made pewter-based pint glasses ($92; match1995.com)?

SERVING TRAY

Bringing out a second round of martinis for your party guests gets a lot easier with a glass-bottomed Hunt & Bloom rattan tray—it's practically wobble-proof ($105; huntandbloom.com).

BOTTLE STOPPER

Don't get all shook up if you're bored with glass or metal stoppers. Plug your pinot noir with a ceramic Elvis made for Nickey Kehoe instead ($70; nickeykehoe.com).

WINE KEY

A fine wine deserves a fine tool, like this corkscrew-knife combo from Kevin's Fine Outdoor Gear and Apparel ($48; kevincatalog.com).

JIGGER

Double guns? How about double duty. That's what a pewter Lab jigger from Croghan's Jewel Box pulls with aplomb ($110; croghansjewelbox.com).

